

The communist China and North Korea parties think Taiwan and the West are a threat their one party rule. But the real threat they don't see is global warming. Even If they win they would still lose to global warming. Without the west and Taiwan's help, global warming will cause their governments to fail and lead them into collapsing chaos.

Barda Says: "There are Pockets of Investors all around the global financial system. They Control the resources. Due to global warming governments will be forced to redistribute these resources to their populations so as to prevent social collapse. Expect wealth to flow from the few to the many. The old system is dead. A new system is being created".
